Gabriella Pascoli

She was first introduced to Ashtanga Vinyasa in 1991 and then in 1996 moved to Mysore for the next 5 years with her family, so she could study closely and regularly with Shri.K.Pattabhi Jois and his grandson Sharath Rangaswamy, the source of the ashtanga vinyasa method.

Her teaching is hailed as sensitive and strong. She is respected for her dedication to the practise and an intuitive technique and method, which combines a deep inner understanding of yogic principles intergrated with modern knowledge and pragmatism of daily life.

The workshop will consist of daily breathing/pranayama work, meditation and your self practise Mysore style. Individual instruction will be given and hands on adjustments conducted in a safe manner using technique. The preparation of the breathing work will give the nadi's the chance to relax and open.
